

Valuing Diversity

Talacre values the diversity of its community. We are committed to ensuring that every child is respected and valued, and has equal access to our service.

We organise a range of sporting activities providing a choice for all children. We welcome children with special needs and do all we can to satisfy their individual needs. We aim to ensure that all our activities and resources are accessible.

Please help us ensure that everyone is treated fairly by ticking the box that describes you best.
